AN OUTING TO THE ZOO (by Isaac Tang)

Last Saturday, I went to the zoo with my family. My mother packed some sandwiches. My father drove us there.

When I got there, I fed the wild and fierce bird. I decided to take a photo with the bird. After that, I went deeper into the zoo. Soon, I saw a lion in the water, Suddenly, it roared loudly because it was hungry. I began to get scared. Next I went to watch the animal show. I played with the elephant.

After looking at quite a few animals, I got hungry so we stopped to eat our sandwiches. Mine was a cheese sandwich.

At the end of the day, my father drove us home, I was tired but happy. Next time, I want to go to the cinema.
